

CHAIRS:

If you look for "legless chair" on google or amazon you will see lots of choices. Best to stay under 25" width and 6 foot length

#1 Here is the mattress/ chair I am currently using - very comfortable and short enough to be able to operate the ratchet....It does take up 4" of the height but that is not an issue for me at 5'4": This is a bed bath and beyond link but I think it is less expensive on amazon

#2 I have tried this one but wanted something full length - this one has a lever to move the back of the chair

#3 I have tried this one but with the length I was unable to adjust the ratcheted back without first folding up the foot and sliding the chair down toward the foot. The back of the chair was just too tall.

#4 This was my original chair and it was very comfortable and useful inside the shoe....I just wanted something a bit more "cushy" and full length
